PRAYER FOR THE WELFARE ON OUR MEMBERS' CHILDREN IN ISRAEL:

The Vizhnitzer Rebbe of Bnei Brak, Rav Yisroel Hager, recited a special mi shebeirach on Shabbos at the Vizhnitzer Beis Midrash in Bnei Brak for the Israeli soldiers, the sick, and the hostages, using the tefillah composed by Rav Menachem Mendel Gefner. The mi shebeirach was written 75 years ago and was recited by the Tchebiner Rov and Rav Isser Zalman Meltzer: The Rabbi has made a few adaptations to it including the names of members children fighting the physical and spiritual war.

He who blessed our ancestors Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, he will bless and safeguard and help and shield and save all our brothers of the House of Israel, who are standing in the military and spiritual battle against the haters of Israel; especially Ariella & Ryan Berman, Salomon Friedlander, Moshe Froom, Samuel Glowinsky, Stefanie Glowinsky, Shira Goodman, Aaron Greenfield, Adina Hershenfield, Aylon Kushnir, Josh Lasarow, Aaron Lasarow, Lori Maresky, Moshe Michalowicz, Menachem & Malka Michalowicz, David & Chana Romi-Babany, Sarah Romi-Babany, Yakira Serman, and Yechiel Sussman, Eliav & Adva Yehuda, the Zohar, Bartkunsky, Clish, Devere, Goldberg, Horovitz, Lewis, Sass, Stein, Mishan, Sonenberg, and Sacks families for the sake of which the whole congregation blesses them and prays for them. In this merit, the Almighty will protect them and save them from all evil, and will speak to the nations under them, and five of them will pursue one hundred of them, and a hundred of them will pursue ten thousand of them, and wherever they turn, they will succeed, and our enemies will fall to the sword before them, and they will return to their homes in peace. To heal them, to sustain them and to revive them, and send them complete healing from heaven for all their limbs and sinews among the rest of the sick of Israel, the healing of the soul and the healing of the body, now, speedily, in a short time, and let us say Amen. And those of them who fell into captivity, the Almighty will have mercy on them and will give them to mercy before their captors, and will take a prisoner out of prison, and will call the captives freedom and the prisoners a strong guard, and will return them to their homes in peace soon, Amen

The Westmount Shul is proud to take part in the OU's B'Yachad LaNetzach project which aims to commemorate every IDF chayal who has made the ultimate sacrifice in the aftermath of the October 7th attacks.

When you enter the Shul, you will see a plaque that features a photo and a short bio of Kfir Yitzchak Franco.

Here more information about Kfir hy”d from a Jerusalem Post article written by Liat Collins: ‘Everything you’re feeling is normal,’ I’ve found myself reassuring people recently. Or maybe I’m trying to reassure myself.

But what can be considered normal? It’s not the normal order of things for parents to bury their children, yet last week when Captain Kfir Yitzchak Franco, a platoon commander in the Armored Corps, fell in Gaza, I rushed to his home. The next day, I was present as his parents, maternal grandparents, and two sisters parted from him at Jerusalem’s Mount Herzl Military Cemetery.

It was not natural that his fiancée, Naama, should abandon their wedding plans and eulogize him and their powerful love. It was extraordinary that there, by the grave, she should pledge that she would nonetheless “one day raise a family in Israel,” a tribute to Kfir’s strong Zionism as much as her own courage.

Kfir was – will always be – the son of my friends, Muriel and Haim; the child from across the road who played with marbles, toy cars, and plastic soldiers together with my son on my living-room floor. I watched him grow from a cute kid into an officer and a gentleman. As is customary in the IDF, he was promoted posthumously. How I wish he could have remained a lieutenant for longer, rather than remaining forever 22 years and one week old.

Hundreds of people lined the street holding flags and singing “Am Yisrael Chai” as the family made their way from their home to the cemetery. “Am Yisrael Chai!,” his father shouted. The People of Israel lives! The echo reached the heavens and will forever reverberate in Jerusalem’s hills and beyond.

Thousands came to pay their last respects at Mount Herzl, those who knew Kfir in his too-brief lifetime, and those who only heard of him after his death – a brave soldier who suddenly became the son of all of us.

It was surreal – not normal – to lean on my reservist son at the funeral and to watch him the next day pick up his gun after a brief shiva visit and head back to his own unit. Kfir’s grave is located close to that of the much-loved Rabbi Naaran Eshchar, from my son’s yeshiva. The 33-year-old father donated a kidney in the summer, and his family donated more organs after he was killed in the line of duty last month.

NAAMA, THE FIANCEE of Cpt. Kfir Yitzhak Franco (inset), surrounded by their families and friends, salutes him at his funeral at Jerusalem’s Mount Herzl military cemetery on November 16
